This Week's Focus

Reading-

This week we learned about some reading strategies we can use while reading to become strong readers. We also continued adding to our Read to Self and Read to Someone stamina graphs.

Writing-

This week we worked on rewriting, and adding details to our words and pictures in order to publish one of our stories. Friday is our writing celebration!

Math-

This week we learned about counting on and grouping while counting along with finding numbers before or after.

Social Studies-

This week we learned about communities and authority figures in school and at home.
