This Week’s Focus

Reading-

This week we worked on building our read to self-stamina. We also continued to build habits that “strong readers” have.

Writing-

This week in writing we continued to write stories from our hearts and practices writing for the whole writing workshop block.

Math-

This week we continued to work with number 1-20. We worked on place value and grouping teen numbers by 10s.

Social Studies-

This week we continued to set expectations for how we will behave in class and how to show quality work.
